		VisionIT made headlines last December when its five-year, $49 million IT contract with the Detroit Public Schools was retained, while the school board rescinded three other controversial contracts. Most of the IT services at issue in the contracts had previously been provided by Detroit-based Compuware Corp. VisionIT won the vast majority of the work. VisionIT, the fastest-growing company on this list, was named to the Inc. Magazine Inner City 100 for the third year in a row in 2007 and has also made the Inc. 500 list of fastest-growing companies nationwide several times.
